

Leading as a Team

Ten fundamentals for leading as a team of leaders

1. Committed to loving one another in keeping with the command of our Lord Jesus
2. Committed to praying regularly for one another
3. Committed to affirming one another and building each other up in the Christian faith and walk
4. Committed to supporting and remaining loyal to the team leader; also to being loyal to one another at times and in every context, refusing to entertain negative talk or comments towards a fellow-team member
5. Committed to submitting to one another
6. Committed to giving and receiving correction to and from each team member
7. Committed to persevering in developing stronger and closer relationships
8. Committed to maintaining unity involving a wholehearted acceptance of agreed upon decisions
9. Committed to putting off of any form of hypocrisy in relationships and putting on an openness to be real with one another
10. Committed to working hard to listen, understand, appreciate and accept one another's gifts, abilities, differences, strengths as well as weaknesses
